

Silver Springs Single Family 2010 Candidates:

WRITE IN--- Clay Archer - Clay Archer has been involved with the HOA since 2000. He has contributed his time, financial resources, and calm understanding to the issues requiring remedy within our Community. Clay has represented the Silver Springs Community Group at Master Association meetings and presented the group's ideas, concerns, and Community survey ballot results to that board. Clay will uphold our Bylaws and CCRs. He will work to update and clarify the items that need revision. He will support equal representation of all members, board transparency and frugal fiduciary responsibility while making sure that the monthly newsletter and website keep the resident members informed and up to date. Clay has lived in Silver Springs for fifteen years and is a local businessman.

--- Ed Cody – Ed and his wife Corinne, are retired. They live on the curve of Silver Springs Road. [Bio has been requested.]. This is Ed's third try, 2008, 2009, and 2010, at being elected to this board.

--- Tracey Douthett – is married to Matt Lindon. They live on East Meadows Drive, adjacent to the Willow Creek stream and open space recreation area. Tracey has lived in Silver Springs since 1998 and worked in Park City since 1988. She is a Utah and Nevada registered professional land planner and landscape architect. She specializes in land-use planning, landscape architectural design and construction, approvals and project management. She owns and operates Planit Design Studio, a design company that integrates the natural environment and the human need for community. Tracey is chair-elect on the Snyderville Basin Recreation Board of Directors. She enjoys cycling, backcountry skiing, hiking, gardening and reading.

--- Jim Harsch - Jim and his wife, Billie, are real estate agents and active members of the Park City area. They live on Silver Springs Drive and on the east shore of the Little Lake. [Bio has been requested.] Jim's election to the Silver Springs SF board would make him the fourth lake front owner on the board of seven trustees.

--- Rob Vandenberg – Rob and his wife Suzanne also live on East Meadows Drive across the street, west of the Lot 104 access to the Willow Creek open space recreation area. You can contact Rob on Twitter. Rob has lived in Park City for 6 years. He is the CEO for a software company, http://lingotek.com/leadership_team. And has been impacted by the lack of maintenance of our neighborhood's drainage system.

All the above candidates have been contacted to provide their short biography and aspirations for the SSSF board. Other known SSSFHOA Members nominated were Lucy Archer, Randy Cassidy, Linda King, Suzanne Beck.